Narcotics Arrest

Heroin/Fentanyl Distributed Within 1,000 Feet of a School

Hollywood Police arrested two individuals who were distributing large amounts of Heroin mixed with Fentanyl on the west side of the City of Hollywood, in close proximity to a number of schools.

The City of Hollywood Police Department's Vice, Intelligence and Narcotics Unit arrested Marcus A. Wright (DOB: 07/03/1983) and Adina C. Spry (DOB: 8/20/1985) after an undercover operation led detectives to 700 N 71st Avenue in Hollywood, FL.

The arrestees were discovered to be trafficking Heroin mixed with the deadly and potent Fentanyl, all within 1,000 feet of Hollywood Park Elementary School.

A search warrant revealed approximately 65.6 grams of Heroin/Fentanyl, Cocaine, Methamphetamine, drug paraphernalia, credit card skimming device, a firearm, ammunition and cash inside of the residence.

Charges include: Selling Heroin/Fentanyl 1000ft from a School, Trafficking Fentanyl, Possession of Cocaine, Possession of Methamphetamine and Possession of Credit Card Skimming Device.
