$25,000 RENOVATION GRANTS
AVAILABLE TO HOLLYWOOD BUSINESSES
Information Sessions Scheduled for August 6th and August 22nd

Hollywood, FL – The City of Hollywood’s Office of Communications, Marketing and Economic Development announces the expansion of the Commercial Property Improvement Program (CPIP) City-wide. The program aims to improve the facades of publicly or privately owned commercial and industrial buildings by awarding qualifying applicants up to 50% of their construction costs (maximum grant $25,000).

The City is proud to offer CPIP funding as an incentive for owners to restore, renovate and improve their properties along vital commercial corridors in Hollywood. In addition to Hollywood Boulevard from I-95 to 22nd Avenue, the program now includes:

- Federal Highway/US 1 - Sheridan Street to Pembroke Road
- Dixie Highway/N. 21 Avenue - Sheridan Street to Pembroke Road
- Johnson Street - 72nd Avenue to 55th Avenue
- US 441 - North of Atlanta Street to Pembroke Road
- Hollywood Boulevard - 72nd Avenue to 22nd Avenue

Join us for an Information Session to learn more about CPIP, the eligibility criteria and application process.

- Tuesday, August 6th: City Hall, 2600 Hollywood Blvd., Room 219, 6:00 p.m.
- Thursday, August 22nd: Boulevard Heights Community Center, 6700 Garfield Street, 6:00 p.m.
